CONVENTION CALL.

To the Republican Electors of Pennsylvania:
After consultation and correspondence with the members of the Republican State Committee, and by their direction, I hereby give notice that the Republicans of Pennsylvania, by their duly sworn representatives, will meet in State Convention at Harrisburg, Wednesday, August 19, 1891, at 10 o'clock A. M., for the purpose of placing in nomination candidates for the offices of State Treasurer and Auditor General, for the nomination of delegates to the National Convention to be held at St. Louis, Mo., in August, 1892, and for the transaction of such other business as may be presented.

Notice is especially directed to the fact that, in accordance with the provisions of the last mentioned act, each Senatorial district is entitled to a representation of three delegates in said Constitutional Convention, two of whom only can be members of the majority party in said district. The electors of each district are therefore requested to make proper nominations for delegates to said convention, the rules governing the nomination of candidates for State Senator to be applicable.

In this connection the Chairman desires to call the attention of Republican voters to the recommendation of the State Convention of 1882, that "they allow the greatest freedom in the general participation of the primaries consistent with the preservation of the party organization."

W. M. H. ANDREWS, Chairman.

MR. MILLS of Texas, says the Alliance movement will not amount to anything in the South. Just exactly what we have asserted all the time and is additional proof that the whole movement is for the purpose of aiding the Democratic party. While Alliance Republicans are supporting their party, the alleged Alliance Democrats are urging on the movement with remarkable energy, throwing dust in the eyes of the Republican contingent, but resolved to vote hereafter as heretofore for the Democratic party and the Solid South. That the so called "Peoples Party" is not intended to mean Democratic people, is very evident to every one, except the duped Alliance Republicans.

The news comes from the headquarters of the Alliance, in Washington, that while the third party does not hope to beat McKinley in Ohio, this fall, its leaders expect to accomplish the political downfall of Senator Sherman. It is possible the people of Ohio may be foolish enough to retire their ablest public servant for an unheard of and untold man, but it is not at all

MANY LIVES LOST

TWO THOUSAND PEOPLE MADE HOMELESS BY FLOODS.

NORTHWEST IOWA IS FLOODED.

Great Injury to Railroad Property and Crops Generally Destroyed. Every Bridge Across the Sioux River Gone.

By National Press Association.

SIoux CITY, June 26.—Reports from all quarters concerning the unprecedented high water resulting from the cloud-burst in the Sioux Valley, Ia., show that there has been great damage to railroad property, and that the crops generally in that region are destroyed. The Floyd River is out of its banks, and people have been compelled to make hasty departures to higher ground.

Four persons were drowned at Cherokee. It is impossible to learn their names or how the unfortunate met their death.

Everything is in the wildest confusion at Cherokee and Correctionville. It is now known that six persons met their death in the country round about the latter place, and the number is reported increased to eight.

Houses, barns and outhouses were floating in the Little Sioux past Cherokee all day. No one knows where they came from.

The following additional particulars of the flood at Cherokee have been received: The wagon bridge over the Sioux, south of the town, went out at ten o'clock at night. This was followed by all the houses on the flat in that part of the town, more than 100. The number of people driven from their homes was between 1,500 and 2,000. The river rose until 8 o'clock, at that time being ten feet higher than was ever known. Every bridge across the Sioux river, both wagon and railroad, is gone between here and Onawa, and probably every bridge in Cherokee County, on the Sioux river.

Last night most of the distressed people found shelter in the Grand Army of the Republic and Odd Fellows' Halls. This morning the town presents a sorrowful appearance. Those houses that remain on the flat are almost buried in the mud. The destruction to property alone is over $200,000. Besides almost all of the stock pastured along the Sioux was carried away by the flood, only a few animals being saved as they came down the river. Yesterday all passenger trains were stopped at Storm Lake.

THE EXPERTS' REPORT.

Ex-City Treasurer Bardsley's Statement to be Torn to Shreds.

PHILADELPHIA, June 26.—The mayor's experts, Taylor Faunce, Lawrence Brown and Thomas W. Barlow, are now preparing a report which is likely to tear ex-City Treasurer Bardsley's statement to shreds. To-day Mr. Barlow is busy writing the report, which will be finished and presented to Mayor Stuart on Saturday or Monday next.

Mr. Brown was disposed to be reticent about the nature of the report to be presented, but it was learned that the experts have not enough information to totally disprove Bardsley's statement. It is said that in direct contradiction of Bardsley's statement it will be shown that $400,000 of the money went into the Bradford mill, and that since Bardsley became city treasurer fully $3,000,000 have passed through the Keystone Bank in a fund from which Bardsley drew various amounts to pay the expenses of the Bradford mill.

Mr. Graham was asked when Bardsley would be brought up for sentence. He said he did not know, as Bardsley's statement is being investigated to ascertain whether or not it is true. "If it is true," said Mr. Graham, "why, of course, he is entitled to any benefit which may result from his telling the truth. If it is not true, why it is information for the court to act upon."

McMillan Convicted of Murder.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., June 26.—Edwin McMillan was convicted of murder in the first degree for the murder of his wife. The crime was a most brutal one, it being charged that McMillan murdered the woman by burning her about certain parts with red hot irons and afterward pouring live coals into the wounds thus made.

Race Horses Released by the Sheriff.

BUFFALO, N. Y., June 26.—The sheriff has released the race horses Ljéro and Costa Rica, their owners, Steadman and Rogers, having filed a $5,000 bond with Judge Rocko. The horses were attached on suit of "Lucky Baldwin," who claimed to have a claim of $2,500 on them for their purchase price. The horses are now on their way to Saratoga.

Mysterious Disappearance of a Clergyman.

ALBANY, N. Y., June 26.—The members of the Episcopal Church at Schaghticoke, Rensselaer County, are mystified over the sudden disappearance of their pastor, Rev. Mr. Dickinson. He took the evening train for Troy last Monday and has not been heard from since. He is about 35 years old and unmarried.

Iron Workers on Strike.

PORTSMOUTH, Pa., June 26.—The employees of the Pioneer Iron Furnaces of this town demanded that they be paid according to the Pittsburgh rate of wages. The owners refused to do so, and the men, numbering several hundred, have gone on strike. The furnaces are now idle.

MONEY MATTERS.

Some Quaker Lines by a Local Correspondent.

Money makes the mare go!

Of course, John L. will fight!

Of course, any of us will fight.

Money makes the mare go!

Haxleton will have a street railway.

It needs it, bad too.

Money makes the mare go!

An electric railway would be of great benefit to Shenandoah.

But money makes the mare go!

There is a strong probability that, in due time, Shenandoah will have an electric railway.

Money makes the mare go!

There is also a strong probability that in due time people will see the advantage of such a railway.

Money makes the mare go!

And it would not be surprising to see some money-laden natives ready and willing to invest a few dollars in such an undertaking, because—

Money makes the mare go!

But if, like Haxleton, Shenandoah should fall into the hands of some "crust" outside capitalists, and the town should be overwhelmed by their "incarnation" capital, then! Oh, then! I would we see that—

Money makes the mare go!

The electric railway is dead," say some—

But money makes the mare go!

Many a colliery in the Anthracite region has been dead for some years, but—

Money makes the mare go!

The electric light was laughed and scoffed at, and "gas" was declared to be the article, but a few years ago, in Shenandoah

Money made the mare go!

One national bank was said to be the only possible investment; but two seem now to live and, so, you see

Money makes the mare go!

'Tis strange, the age we live in! That nothing new will pay!

Yet, look at the ordinary cashier, he's always making hay.

Takes money to make the mare go!

Enterprise, grit, confidence, energy and public spirit should be piled up and then, with the financial harness,

The mare will go!

If you'll be with the people and benefit your town.

Give courage to the enterprising, and don't run them down.

There is many a man, without one cent.

Who has exhausted more energy than the money you've spent.

To get your small property "on tick" or a loan.

And he stands ready to make your sand sound as stone.

But if you intend to "make and get out." Then take our advice and quickly "move out."

For such won't live long.

This must be held not less than ten days nor more than thirty days before the state convention, which will meet on August 19.

LONG-LOST WIFE!

THE WOMAN DROWNED AT CROTON LANDING KNOWN.

SHE WAS MRS. FRANK ATWOOD

Her Husband Visited Tarrytown and Recognized the Body—She Ran Away From Him in Philadelphia.

By National Press Association.

YONKERS, N. Y., June 26.—The Croton suicide was identified last night at Tarrytown by Frank Atwood of Philadelphia as his wife. Mr. Atwood came to Tarrytown last night with his little girl Louise on the 7 o'clock train.

He said that his wife ran away from him about two years and five months ago, and he has been trying to find her ever since. The chief of police wanted him to remain in Tarrytown all night, but he decided not to do this and said he would return this afternoon. Mr. Atwood said that he had a brother-in-law in Yonkers named Herbling, who was a candy manufacturer.

Still a Mystery.

Mr. Atwood does not believe that his wife took her own life, and he says that it is not her handwriting that was found in the bottle in her pocket. She was well educated and would not make the mistakes in spelling common words as appear in the note. Chief of Police Noszter and Coroner Sutton also believe that there is good ground for the belief that she was thrown into the water at Snell's wharf and did not jump.

The chief says that no person bent upon suicide would be so careful as to put 65 cents under her hat on the wharf and carefully pin in her pocket the note telling of her suicide. He thinks if she had killed herself she would have put the bottle on the wharf and not have bothered about the money.

The initials in the note are not those of the dead woman and the police believe that the note was written by someone else and placed in her pocket to make it appear as a suicide in case the body should be found. The chief doubts the suicide theory more than ever after a long interview with Mr. Atwood.

It Looks Like Murder.

"I am convinced now that there has been foul play," said Chief of Police Noszter. "In my opinion the identification of the body would be so careful as to put 65 cents under her hat on the wharf and carefully pin in her pocket the note telling of her suicide. He thinks if she had killed herself she would have put the bottle on the wharf and not have bothered about the money."

WHIPPED BY A WOMAN.

A Witness in the Camp Divorce Case Severely Punished.

WATERBURY, Conn., June 26.—The horsewhipping administered to James Finnerty yesterday by Mrs. Laura E. Pearson created a sensation here.

Finnerty was driving a yoke of oxen by the house of Mrs. Pearson, the pretty widow who figured as the co-respondent in the divorce suit brought by Mrs. E. A. Camp against her husband, who is now to be sued by Mrs. Camp for alienating her husband's affections.

At the trial of the Camp divorce case Finnerty was a witness for Mrs. Camp, and testified that it was not an uncommon sight to see Mr. Camp and Mrs. Pearson embrace and kiss each other. He seemed to have been dragged into the case largely to make a sensation.

When Mrs. Pearson saw Finnerty coming she rushed out into the street with a horsewhip in her hand and belabored him with it. Being a woman of large proportions and great strength every blow told. She is wealthy, and, as is her custom, was handsomely dressed. Finnerty tried in vain to remonstrate and then turned and ran. He went to the office of Lawyer John O'Neill, who, by the way, happens to be Mrs. Camp's attorney, and there took steps to bring a suit against the widow. He showed to witnesses many ugly looking welts on his arms and shoulders.

Mrs. Pearson says that the man ran before she could inflict any heavy punishment.

Each Sam Will Pay $5,000,000.

WASHINGTON, June 26.—It is said here to-day that the last trimming suits against the government to recover excessive duties would be compromised. The suits number 1,500 and to settle them all in court would require many years and great expense, and it has therefore been deemed wise by the importers to compromise the matter. Five million dollars is the amount said to have been agreed upon in the settlement.

Navajo Hostiles on the Warpath.

WASHINGTON, June 26.—War Department dispatches just received from Las Vegas, N. M., are that the Navajo reservation trouble is increasing. A courier has been sent to the Commander of "D" Troop on the reservation calling for aid by Lieut. Brett, who was sent to Keene Canon near Fort Huachuca, to suppress the depredations of the hostiles. "H" Troop has left for the scene.

The Crew Arrested.

BOSTON, June 26.—The crew of the schooner James W. Fitch, Capt. Fitcher, which arrived during the morning from Matanzas, were all placed under arrest as witnesses in the case of the murder of Second Mate Adolph Nelson by Steward Charles Ford in the harbor of Matanzas, May 29 last.

PERSONAL.

Charles Housman, of Altoona, is visiting his parents in town. T. R. Beddall, Esq., and Richard Hornberger spent to-day fishing at Tumbling Run.

S. G. M. Holloper, Esq., Rev. H. F. O'Reilly and Dr. J. C. Biddle left for Mud Run this morning to angle for trout.

Prof. G. W. Weis was last night presented with a handsome gold-headed cane by the Temperance Band of Lost Creek. Richard Palmer, who will resign his position as inside fireman for Wm. Penn colliery on July 1st, will go to the East Franklin colliery, at Tremont, and not the North Franklin colliery at Shamokin, as previously reported.

A Suggestion.

The "Siege of Sebastopol" is now being reproduced at Harrisburg at a cost of $20,000 for ten exhibitions and from 10,000 to 15,000 people witness it daily, traveling from all parts of the state to witness the spectacle. It has been suggested that a sham battle be fought at Lakeside in September and that either Shenandoah or Mahanoy City take the initiative. The latter place being nearest to Lakeside and having a military company would perhaps be the most suitable field for the start. It would be a big card and no less than 10,000 people be induced to witness it. Of course, it should be an elaborate affair and several companies should participate in it. No better place than Lakeside could be selected. The driving park would afford a splendid field and the neighboring groves would answer for skirmishes, sharp-shooting, etc. What say you, soldiers? If Mahanoy City does not take the cue, let the boys in blue of town take hold. It will pay.

Mr. Fort's Side.

Councilman F. J. Fort, in conversation with a Herald reporter to-day, expressed much indignation over the manner in which the Council treated the work of his committee on Wednesday night. Mr. Fort said, "It is not true that Schellfy and I have ignored Holman in street work. I have sent for him repeatedly and always wanted him to have a say in the work. So far as the crusher is concerned, I will vote against it being accepted. I do not want it. I wanted a smaller and cheaper one, but Hoffman would have none of it. He is not to be our quartermaster given with the crusher is concerned. I want it understood that I am not going to run to Lost Creek and show it to every Tom, Dick and Harry. I will show it to the officers of Council and no one else. You can say, now that Dave, the Supervisor, has no work to do, he and I are going fishing tomorrow."

Last Day.

To-morrow will be the last opportunity the people of this place will have to visit the Museum of Anatomy, as the engagement will close to-morrow night. The museum has been crowded every day and evening this week. The exhibits are excellent object lessons on the formation of the human body and none should fail to see them.

Mischiefous Boys.

A number of boys were before Squire Williams last night, one gang charged with destroying property at the Knickerbocker colliery, and another charged with breaking the water pipes and draining the dams at the Kohinor colliery. The boys are under bail, but it is believed the cases will be settled this evening by the parents paying the damages and costs.

The Viewers' Report.

Col. J. G. Frick, A. B. Cochran and J. H. Mudge, the viewers appointed to consider the advisability of dividing the wards of this borough, to-day submitted their report to the court at Pottsville. The Herald is having the report examined and will give the particulars to-morrow.
